BUSINESS COMMUNITY ADVISORY:

Businesses & Restaurateurs Invited to Participate in May 28
City of Palm Springs “Restaurant, Retail, Hair Salon & Barbershop Re-Opening Guidance” Webinar

May 26, 2020

In the wake of the County of Riverside’s recent announcement that our region is now approved to enter the accelerated stage of Gov. Gavin Newsom’s Phase 2 COVID-19 Re-Opening Plan, the City of Palm Springs is pleased to host an important upcoming webinar called “Restaurant, Retail, Hair Salon & Barbershop Re-Opening Guidance for Business Owners,” scheduled for this Thursday, May 28.

The 9 a.m. Zoom webinar, led by Chief of Police Bryan Reyes and City Attorney Jeffrey Ballinger, along with Mayor Geoff Kors and City Manager David H. Ready, will outline new health and safety regulations developed to help business owners open safely and successfully. To sign up for the webinar, visit www.palmspringsca.gov where you’ll find a link on the front page under “In the Spotlight.”

“The City of Palm Springs has been working diligently to be ready for the accelerated stage of Phase 2. I want to thank Chief Reyes and the City Attorney for their commitment to helping guide our businesses, restaurants, hair salons and barbers so they may open safely and successfully,” said Mayor Geoff Kors. “I encourage anyone in need of help with this process to join us for this important webinar so that we can all stay safe as we move forward with re-opening the Palm Springs economy.”
